Ceméa Lebanon

Presentation

The Lebanon Training Centre for Active Education Methods is an NGO recognised by the Ministry of the Interior. The Lebanon Training Centre for Active Education Methods is run by a Board of Directors consisting of nine members.

The Lebanon Training Centre for Active Education Methods is a training organisation which trains organisers, instructors and head teachers of holiday centres, and organises youth groups.

In addition, the association organises, every summer, a 21-day pilot summer camp for children from the age of 5 to 12, and a teenagers' group. All its members are volunteers.

The association receives no grant from public bodies and survives thanks to private charities which require their action, by Saint Joseph University or private schools for training.

2013: 3 weeks of summer camps bringing together 105 children in difficult situations, from all faiths and religions.

The Lebanon Training Centre for Active Education Methods has been one of the first associations to be involved with extracurricular activities, and to train qualified staff for all communities. This experience has been the fruit of work since 1964 and membership of the International Federation since 1971. In 1972, the Lebanon Training Centre for Active Education Methods has organised a meeting with the International Federation in Lebanon on issues relating to extracurricular activities. The association has been stakeholder for many years in the reflections and actions led by the International Federation of Training Centres for Active Education Methods.

The majority of members are: university professors, heads of secondary education at private schools, nursery schools, social workers etc. The association brings together within its members leading intellectuals and youth workers. Their field activity is structured with theoretical reflection.

CEDEM

Presentation

The CEDEM (Education and Development Centre for Mauritian Children) is one of the non-governmental organisations that looks after vulnerable children including handicapped children, orphans, abuse victims, poverty-stricken children and street children, thanks mainly to a plethora of social and educational services and projects. The CEDEM actively campaigns to promote children's survival, protection, development and rights. Its main objective is to improve the quality of children's lives.

In 2009, the CEDEM celebrated its 25 year anniversary. The organisation and its partners are now more determined than ever to continue to fight for a Mauritius that is worthy of its children.

Mission

To give each child a better future.

Vision

A society where each child is cherished and has access to high-quality education.

Goals

- Offering Mauritian children a comprehensive education that is not merely academic but also providing them with the tools to become well-adjusted citizens who are useful to society.
- Support vulnerable children and children in need.
 - Raise awareness among parents of their key role in educating children.
 - Support families in difficulty.
- Train teachers, youth workers and social workers.
- Offer Mauritian children recreational opportunities targeting the most deprived areas of the island as a priority.

Projects/activities

- Early childhood development centre: the preschool section of the specialist schools for children including those that target children that are handicapped or slow learners
- Activity and recreational unit
- Children's home: gradual rebuilding within an appropriate framework
- Community development project: setting up of educational and social projects in underprivileged areas. Street library, English and French language programmes, Street activity sessions, Parent training, building refurbishment

- A project specifically aimed at integrating handicapped children : in a primary and secondary school with specially adapted sections for slow learners and handicapped children
- A family advice centre: a forum for listening offering support and advice, practical and concrete solutions to problems, timely assistance from doctors, speech and language therapists, psychologists and educational consultants.
- A therapeutic unit: medical treatment with a full range of therapies available including physiotherapy, massage therapy and psychotherapy
- A training school: for training young volunteers between 14 and 25 years, CEDEM staff, parents and members of other organisations.

Permanent Education Service CEMEA (Training centres for active learning methods) –
Asbl

Presentation

CEMEA in the federation of Wallonia Brussels is

An educational MOVEMENT

which asserts that education is for all, without distinction of age, culture, sex, beliefs, social circumstances, that it is continual and that every human being can develop and transform himself throughout the lifespan;

which supports the idea that education must be grounded in activity, essential in individual training and in the acquisition of culture and which considers that the environment is primordial in the development of the individual.

A training organisation which affirms that training is a space of permanent education, social existence characterised by the interests of collective action and that it must privilege the development of knowledge by the individual himself to strengthen his skills and his capacity for action; which is addressed towards all persons paid or voluntary, engaged in cultural, educational and social initiatives...and who, in their association, in their workplace, in their daily life, their personal commitments...believe in the possibility of each person developing throughout his or her lifespan; which puts in place different systems (training, research, exchange...) to foster the emancipation and the awareness of agents of change on issues of education in society.

Activities

- Training in the field of permanent education (socio-cultural activities).
- Skills training for street and neighbourhood activities and extracurricular training.

- Training of professionals of the After-School Reception (ATL) for three to twelve year olds.
- Training of professionals in early years education (0-3 years).

The CEMEA respond to the demands of the organising powers or school directors by putting in place training projects adapted to their specific requirements.

A few examples

Activities encouraging self-expression, setting up projects, the development of well-being units, education about gender equality, integration of children with disabilities...
