

European Social Meetings from 12 to 15 December 2018

PROGRAMME

For European Social Meetings

12-15th DECEMBER 2018

au Cnam 292 rue Saint-Martin - 75003 Paris

The meetings will be held across weekdays and weekends. This will be an opportunity to present ideas and share your practice around five themes:

– THEME 1: How does civil society remain independent and its opposition when acknowledging relying on government's attention (production, calls for projects)?

Examples:

In a context where civil society organisations are increasingly controlled by governmental evaluation for programmes and calls for projects, is there space for continuing to act as watchdogs over economic, social and educational policies and their impact? Can CNA support alternative approaches instead?

THEME 2: Initiatives to bring the political dimension of social work to education? Training for combat social inequalities?

Examples:

What type of courses, cultures and training are necessary within social work to combat inequalities and social exclusion? What are the different responses according the political dimension on the ground context for education and their training?

THEME 3: Collaborating with communities and citizens to co-design projects and relations?

Examples:

To require increased citizens' participation in projects and relations, what role should be given to the community, to the citizens, public sector work (e.g. policies from budgets)?

THEME 4: Developing the creative and innovative skills of disadvantaged people?

Examples:

How can people from differently disadvantaged people or strengthen their capacities and develop their creative talents?

THEME 5: How can we develop a fair society based on cultural diversity and international solidarity?

Examples:

How can European context from civil society contributing to well-being and participation in living together?
