PROGRAMME

For European Social Meetings

12-15th DECEMBER 2018

au Cnam 292 rue Saint-Martin - 75003 Paris

The meetings will be held across roundtables and workshops. This will be an opportunity to promote debate and share best practices around five themes:

1. ENSP: How does civil society remain independent and in opposition when increasingly relying on government’s subsidies (evaluation, calls for projects)

   Description:
   In a context where civil society organizations are increasingly constrained by governmental evaluation for programmes and calls for projects, is there space for continuing to set out watchdogs own economic, social and educational policies and their impact? Can CSO remain autonomous spaces for citizens?

2. TOPIC 1: Solutions to bring the political dimension of social work to educators’ training to combat social inequalities

   Description:
   What type of courses, settings and training are necessary within social work to combat inequalities and social injustice? What are the different ways to introduce the political dimension in the social sector for educators and their training?

3. TOPIC 2: Collaborating with communities and citizens in co-design projects and solutions

   Description:
   To engage increased consumer participation in projects and solutions, what role should be given to communities, local citizens, public service users (eg. patients those hospitals) ?

4. TOPIC 3: Developing the creative and innovative skills of disadvantaged people

   Description:
   How can people view differently disadvantaged people to recognize their capacities and develop their capacities?

5. TOPIC 4: How can we develop a fair society based on cultural diversity and international solidarity?

   Description:
