European Social Meetings from 12 to 15 December 2018
PROGRAMME

For European Social Meetings

12-15th DECEMBER 2018

au Cnam 292 rue Saint-Martin - 75003 Paris

The meetings will be held under roundtables and workshops. This will be an opportunity to promote debates and share best practices around five themes:

- TOPIC 1: How do civil society remain independent and in opposition when increasingly relying on governmental attunements (evaluation, calls for projects)
  Description: In a context where civil society organizations are increasingly controlled by governmental evaluation, the space for continuing to act as watchdogs over economic, social and educational policies and their impact? Can CSOs remain independent spaces for citizens?

- TOPIC 2: Solutions to bring the political dimension of social work to educators’ teaching to combat social inequalities
  Description: What kind of courses, cultures and training are necessary within social work to combat inequalities and social injustice? What are the different ways to introduce the political dimension in the social sector for educators and their training?

- TOPIC 3: Collaborating with communities and citizens in co-design projects and solutions
  Description: To organize increased citizens’ participation in projects and solutions, what role should be given to the community, local, citizens, public service users [e.g. patients from hospitals]?

- TOPIC 4: Developing the creative and innovative skills of disadvantaged people
  Description: How can people view differently disadvantaged people to reassert their capacities and develop their creative visions?

- TOPIC 5: How can we develop a fair society based on cultural diversity and international solidarity?
  Description: How can we support projects from civil society contributing to well being and participation in living together?
To view the entire program, click on the image or here.