European Social Meetings from 12 to 15 December 2018
PROGRAMME

For European Social Meetings

12-15th DECEMBER 2018

au Cnam 292 rue Saint-Martin - 75003 Paris

The meetings will be held across roundtables and workshops. This will be an opportunity to promote debate and share best practices around five themes:

TOPIC 1: How does civil society remain independent and in opposition when increasingly relying on government’s decisions (evaluation, calls for projects)
Description: At a time when civil society organizations are increasingly constrained by governmental evaluation for programme and calls for projects, there must be an opportunity to set up watchdogs on economic, social and educational policies and their impact. Can CSOs remain autonomous spaces for critical thinking?

TOPIC 2: Solutions to bring the political dimension of social work to educators’ training to combat social inequalities
Description: What type of courses, cultures and training are necessary within social work to combat inequalities and social injustice? What are the different ways to introduce the political dimension in the social sector for educators and their training?

TOPIC 3: Collaborating with communities and citizens in co-design projects and solutions
Description: How can increased community participation in projects and solutions, what role should be given to the community, locals, citizens, public service users (e.g., patients, those in hospital)?

TOPIC 4: Developing the creative and innovative skills of disadvantaged people
Description: How can people view differently disadvantaged people to recognize their capacities and develop their creative vision?

TOPIC 5: How can we develop a fair society based on cultural diversity and international solidarity?
Description: How can European projects from civil society contribute to well being and participation in living together?
